The ever growing cadre of Patrick Brown fans are expected to flood the Little Theatre to bask in another blockbuster from his magical pen, when the stormy romantic comedy HURRICANE HONEYMOON blows into the Little Theatre on Saturday May 30, 2015 for a limited engagement.

Featuring a wonderful mix of young and upcoming Jamaican actors and the celebrated craft and experience of Glen "Titus" Campbell, Brown is of the view that HURRICANE HONEYMOON packs enough comedic energy to be classified as a Category 1 entertainment force, capable of blowing patrons away with sheer fun and laughter.

HURRICANE HONEYMOON offers an extremely humorous look at marriage through the eyes of newly-weds, John and Hilda Charm. The loving couple arrives at the Pleasure Beach hotel with no suspicion of the deep dark secrets about to be exposed. As skeletons start to emerge from their closets, the shabby honeymoon suite soon becomes a war zone, and with a real hurricane closing in, the newly-weds find themselves embroiled in the honeymoon from hell.

Caught in this storm of emotions is Marley, the hotel's maintenance man, who finds himself having to act as referee, marriage counselor and even an unsuspecting participant in a love-triangle.

The cast is rounded out by Akeem Mignott, Ricky Rowe (alternating with Glen Campbell), and Shantol Jackson alternating with Natalee Cole. These young thespians are among the best of the young brigade, in whose most capable hands the future of Jamaican theatre has been entrusted. The ensemble has benefitted from the expert guidance of super directors Patrick Brown and Trevor Nairne. Guaranteed fun and laughter.

Household Help

Ms. Marcia Ellington has been with our family since we arrived in Kingston with our then four-month old daughter and is an excellent, experienced nanny. She has many years of experience working with the Embassy community and until recently was part-time as nanny and housekeeper for another embassy family who moved on to a new assignment. She is a very responsive, engaging caregiver for our daughter. She has never missed a day of work. Marcia Ellington has great initiative. She doesn't stop at taking care of our daughter; whenever there's a pause in childcare, like naptime, she dives right into whatever housekeeping task we need help with, from the kitchen to the laundry room, leaving us more time to do other things. She's immediately available. To setup an interview with Marcia Ellington please call her at 451-0949 (mobile) or 6314138 (home.) She has undergone a security background check and is cleared by RSO for domestic employment. You can also contact us at polacheckjw@state.gov for further reference

Juliet White has been a Nanny and/or Housekeeper for numerous Embassy families for several years. She is outstanding with children, a good cook and an asset to any family. She is completely reliable, always on time and always ready to help. She has an amazing way with children, and was always calm and patient with them, never raising her voice. She kept our house in beautiful condition, our laundry done and our house organized and always has a smile on her face for us. She can be contacted directly at 286-1930. Please feel free to get in touch for references by e-mail at redalenfraser@gmail.com , Rebecca.molinoff@gmail.com or by phone at 620-1007.

Valerie McLarty-Grant is looking for work as a full time nanny/helper. Auntie Valerie filled-in for our nanny this spring, and we wish we could have kept her. She always had the house clean and organized, but more importantly she sang to, played with, fed, and loved my infant/toddler kiddos. She has a heart of gold and would be a delight to have in your house, too. Recommended by Kacey. Call Valerie at 397-9023.

Madge Sinclair is looking for work as a babysitter and/or helper. She is available afternoons and evenings during the school season and full time during the summer. She has worked in a pre-school for the past two years and has experience babysitting for embassy families. Her contact numbers are 374-4541 and 828-3484.
