

In honor of our fallen colleagues, U.S. Ambassador to Libya Chris Stevens, who served at the U.S. Consulate General in Jerusalem from 2002 to 2006, and Glen Doherty, Sean Smith, and Tyrone Woods, who were all killed in Benghazi, Libya on September 11, the American Consulate General in Jerusalem will open a condolence book.

The condolence book will be opened at the U.S. Consulate General facility located at 27 Nablus Road in Jerusalem from Wednesday, September 19, to Friday, September 21, each day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

U.S. Consulate General staff will be on site. No formal arrangements are necessary.
