

JORDAN ICT SITE VISIT TO SILICON VALLEY JANUARY 13-14, 2014

ATTENTION ICT COMPANIES IN JORDAN!

You asked for it and we heard you. Capitalizing on the business synergies afforded by the International Consumer Electronics Show (CES) in Las Vegas, the Commercial Service at the U.S. Embassy in Amman is offering a post-CES site visit to the thriving heart of technological innovation, Silicon Valley. This is a special trade delegation organized specifically for our Jordanian colleagues.

The site visit will connect Jordanian ICT businesses with U.S. counterparts so they can forge partnerships that will lead to productive business relationships and tap in to the full benefits of the U.S./Jordan Free Trade Agreement.

January 13: Group Site Visits

Our schedule will include visits to leading Silicon Valley companies, such as Plug and Play, a global accelerator that specializes in growing tech startups and has a special program for Jordanian companies in partnership with UMNIAH, USAID and Int@j.

January 14: Business Matchmaking Meetings

Participants will have a chance to meet with U.S. businesses one-on-one to explore tailor-made business opportunities in their specific areas of interest.

REGISTRATION FEE: $400 USD

Attendance at CES is not required to participate in Silicon Valley trip.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Participants must register by November 23, 2013. To register, or for more information, please contact Muna.Farkouh@trade.gov, or call her at: 590-6057.
