

FSI/Transition Center Seeking Elementary School Teacher for Summer 2012 Youth Program

FSI's Transition Center (Arlington, VA) is seeking an experienced elementary school teacher to teach six youth program seminars scheduled for June 18-19, June 25-26, July 9-10, July 16-17, July 23-24, and August 6-7.

Job description:

Lead teach predesigned curricula for our summer offerings of Young Diplomats Day and Youth Security Overseas. Class size varies between 15 and 25 students. Depending on class size 2-3 interns/aides will work in the elementary classroom.

Qualifications:

- Experience teaching elementary school aged children
- Experience living overseas with the Foreign Service (highly preferred)
- Comprehensive understanding of diplomatic and security issues facing our young diplomats overseas
- Excellent classroom management techniques
- Initiative to manage classroom aides
- Ability to adapt curricula at a moment's notice to best meet the needs of the students
- Qualified candidates will be available from 8:15-4:30 on June 18-19, June 25-26, July 9-10, July 16-17, July 23-24, and August 6-7.

Compensation:

This is a contract position that will be paid $250.00 per day (only for the dates mentioned above).

If you are interested in this position and meet the qualifications please submit a resume to Laura Miller, Youth Program Coordinator, MillerLE@state.gov. Top candidates will be interviewed.