

The British Council is hiring short-term and long-term consultants to work in Jordan in the fields of education, justice, good governance, civil society, and gender. The closing date for applying for a consultancy is June 28, 2012. Additionally, the British Council is looking for a Marketing Communication Officer and an Education Marketing Project Manager to work in Jordan. The closing date for these applications is June 30, 2012. Please view their website at http://www.britishcouncil.org/jordan-about_us_vacancy.htm for details on how to apply.