Message for U.S. Citizens: Town Hall Meeting at the U.S. Consulate General Almaty on September 27, 2012

The U.S. Consulate General in Almaty would like to invite all American citizens in and around Almaty to a town hall meeting on September 27 at 6:30pm. Consul General Michael Snowden, the new Consular Chief Ian Turner and Regional Security Officer Jason Repchak will provide information about general consular services as well as information about the current security situation in Almaty. Guests will have the opportunity to register with our warden system and also learn about how to register to vote.

The town hall meeting will be held at the Consul General's residence. Light refreshments will be provided.

Please contact the U.S. Consulate General consular section at usakz@state.gov to RSVP and get further information on the location and driving instructions. Please note that space is limited. You must bring your U.S. passport to enter the residence. We hope to see you on September 27!
