Warden Message: SMS Messaging for Consular Communication

The Consular Section of the U.S. Embassy in Kazakhstan is pleased to announce our new capability for warden communication via SMS messaging. While we will still send warden messages by email, in emergency situations and for time critical messages we now have the ability to send additional alerts by SMS. In such situations, we will send SMS messages to Kazakhstani cell phone numbers in our registration list. Our sender ID will appear as: USEmbassyKZ. Recipients will not be able to reply back to the consular SMS messages, and will not be charged for receiving SMS messages. If you have any questions, please call the Embassy at 7172-702100 or 727-250-4900 or email to USAKZ@state.gov

In order to make this emergency SMS warden messaging system as effective as possible, we kindly ask that you update your contact information, particularly your cell phone number, in your registration profile at travel.state.gov to make sure that you get a warden SMS. Please write your local mobile phone number in the following format: 7(country code)777(mobile phone company code)1234567(number). Example: 77771234567 or 77011234567.

Since tax season is upon us, we have attached the IRS publication "Tax Tips for Tax Year 2010."
