Broadway Composer Stephen Schwartz Wows Nairobi Audience in Concert with Local Singers

On February 3, PAS Nairobi sponsored a concert by American musical theater composer and lyricist Stephen Schwartz that left everyone singing in the aisles. Schwartz was joined in concert by Broadway singer and actor Michael Rose and by eight Kenyan singers, each of whom performed a Schwartz composition from Wicked, Children of Eden, or the film Pocahontas for an audience that included over 100 local high school students. For two days prior to the concert, Schwartz conducted master classes for music students interested in American musical theater and then asked the best students to perform with him in concert.
