American author Dinaw Mengestu headlined the fourth annual Storymoja Hay Literary Festival at Nairobi's National Museums of Kenya September 13-16. Dinaw taught creative writing seminars to 100 youth and hosted discussions with the general public about his work. In addition to signing copies of his book Children of the Revolution, he engaged in lively discussions with the audience about America's diversity and frequently discussed the need for a free, fair, and peaceful 2013 election in Kenya.
