“Ramadan Kareem – lets all work together to make Kenya and the world a better place for future generations “

Ambassador Jonathan S. Gration hosted a successful traditional Iftar dinner for Muslim contacts in Mombasa on August 18, 2011. The Iftar was attended by over 200 guests including government representatives, religious organizations, non-governmental organization, academic, cultural, business and the media. In his remarks the Ambassador talked of the importance of Ramadhan and respect for diversity, the need to focus on our shared humanity on similar values and on common bonds that binds all citizens together. A recorded message of President Obama was shown to the invited guests.
