On January 19 MEWA INFORMATION CENTRE (MIC) American corner in conjunction with the US Embassy in Nairobi organized a talk commemorating Martin Luther King Jr. day at MEWA Library. A total of 104 Istiqama Academy Secondary School students, form three's and form four's together with their teachers participated in the event.

MIC Coordinator, Ms. Biasha O. Seif welcomed the students to MEWA library, introduced Mewa AC se and also gave a history and life of Dr.Martin Luther King Jr. and Malcom X who fought civil and human rights for the black people. The talk was informative and inspirational to the students. They learnt the characters of the great two leaders who fought the injustice of the time, the marginalization of the minorities through the non – violence means.

A lot of questions were asked by the students which were well answered by MIC Coordinator.
