Women’s History Month Screening of “Africa is a Woman’s Name”

On March 29, Mrs Judy Gration, wife of U.S. Ambassador Scott Gration, hosted a screening of the film “Africa is a Woman’s Name” at the Nairobi National Museum in honor of Women’s History Month. The evening featured film maker Wanjiru Kinyanjui who discussed her film about Kenya Supreme Court Justice Njoki Ndung’u efforts to ensure passage of the “Sexual Offenses Act” during her time as a Member of Parliament and the sexual harassment she experienced in the workplace. Women’s History Month is a time to reflect on progress made, to call for change, and to celebrate acts of courage and determination by women who have made a difference in their communities and countries. Celebrating Women’s History Month each March is a fitting tribute to the women and men throughout the world who have contributed to the struggle for women’s equality.
