

U.S. Embassy Invites Korean College Students to Online Educational Resources (OER) and Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs)

Have you ever wanted to study at a U.S. university but didn't have the money? Have you ever wondered what the U.S. higher educational system is like? Would taking a class at a prestigious U.S. college help you reach your own career goals? The U.S. Embassy Seoul is offering college students with good English skills the ability to take online college courses from prestigious U.S. universities like Yale, Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at the American Center Korea.

Course Period: Classes begin in January 28, 2013, and will end around the end of April.
Only a limited number of students may participate, so hurry and sign up to secure your place.

Contact the Public Affairs Section at 02)397-4713 or 4647 and AmericanCenterKorea@state.gov

How Does OER/MOOC Works?

- MOOCs consist of online courses proctored by a course instructor such as Coursera, Yale University, and MIT Open Courseware (OCW) Scholar.
<http://www.coursera.org/>
<http://ocw.yale.edu/>
<http://ocw.mit.edu/index.htm>
- U.S. Embassy Seoul offers three courses below in Spring Semester 2013. You can choose one or more courses.

Course#1: Developing Innovative Ideas for New Companies

Course#2: The American Novel Since 1945

Course#3: Women & the Civil Rights Movement

How Can I Join?

- 1st Step: send an e-mail to American Center Korea (AmericanCenterKorea@state.gov) for your participation.
- 2nd Step: come to a kick-off meeting (social gathering) to learn more about the subjects and MOOC programs.
Date: Friday, January 25, 2013, 3-4 p.m.
Place: American Center Korea, Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy Seoul.
- 3rd Step: You take courses either at American Spaces or elsewhere, but we will convene periodically to check on progress.
- 4th Step: Evaluation process
It's so easy. Hurry up and sign-up!!!

