

Sample Completed CV Form

John Smith
Student
American University

Education

Present Student in Political Science, American University

Extracurricular Experience

2009 Volunteer tutor for elementary school students
2008 Political Science Debate Team President
2006 Model UN participant

Professional Experience

2008 Research Assistant for Political Science Professor, American University
2007 Reporter for the Korea Times newspaper
2006 Translator for Amnesty International Conference

Other Information

2008 American Debate Competition, Second Place Debater Award
2007 Koran-American Essay Contest Finalist

Personal Description

John Smith is a third-year student in political science at American University. He has been interested in politics from a young age and has been participating in political debates and Model UN competitions for over seven years. Within the realm of political science, John is most interested in human rights issues. He hopes to become a diplomat for his future career.