Have you participated in a program abroad before? If yes, which one (e.g. FLEX, ...)

QUESTIONS (Short answers. Please use extra pages, if necessary.)

1. Why do you wish to participate in the 2016 BUBW-Kyrgyzstan?
2. Why do you believe such a conference is necessary?
3. What do you hope to achieve personally through the conference?
4. As a global community, what do you anticipate we will succeed in achieving through BUBW-Kyrgyzstan?

5. What unique perspective or other valuable attributes do you think you may bring to the conference?
6. Please describe any interfaith initiatives in which you were previously involved. (e.g. student groups, college courses, internships, grassroots movements, etc.)

It is CECF's dream to see events like BUBW across the world. That is why the conference seeks to select individuals with not just a passion for humanity, but a drive to change their community.

ESSAY: In 500 words or less, please describe how you plan to "take back" to your community what you have learned from the conference. How will you bring BUBW back home so that the messages from our conference have a positive impact on others around you who were not at the conference? If your idea includes an event of sorts, please include how you plan to see-through your proposed activity.
