U.S. Embassy Bishkek

What is a Trade Show?

- A trade show in the United States is usually a big event, where industry specialists from all over the world (primarily USA) gather together to show their products and services

Local vs. U.S. Trade Shows

Local Trade Show	U.S. Trade Show
- Rather small size	- Incredibly big
- Exhibition only	- Exhibition, conference, seminars and training sessions
- Few things that are actively demonstrated	- Option to try the product yourself and see how it works
- No need to be preregistered	- Highly recommended to be preregistered
- Usually free to attend	- Cost money to attend

Industries & Places

- All major industries – from services to heavy industries
- A list of trade shows can be obtained from US Embassy website
- Trade shows occur throughout the United States, but the main convention cities are Chicago, Las Vegas, Orlando and Washington

Why trade shows are important

- Best place to find new partners for your business
- Hands-on experience of products
- Great exposure to new technologies and ideas
- Expanding your network of contacts beyond Kyrgyzstan
- Buy products you need
- Exposure to western business practices

How to participate

- Obtain a list of trade shows from US Embassy's website
(<http://bishkek.usembassy.gov/seminars.html>)
- Go to Trade Show's website
- Register online
- Plan your trip, preselect companies you would like to meet with
- Consult with US Embassy representative

Thank you
