

Earth Day April 22, 2013

The U.S. Embassy is pleased to invite students, staff, and the general public to attend to an educational event for Earth Day, World Environment Day April 22, 2013.

The goal of this program will be to discuss with Lao youth about various topics related to the environment including, wildlife conservation, water issues, climate change, and recycling programs to name a few.

The program will take place at the American Center, at the Lao-American College on April 22, 2013 @ 9:00 – 12:00 noon.

Our space is limited, so we would appreciate if you could register with us before the event. You may reach us at 021-267089 and 021-267263. Or email us at: irc\_vientiane@state.gov