Benjamin Franklin Transatlantic Fellows Summer Institute 2014

The Transatlantic Fellows Summer Institute aims to develop a commitment to transatlantic cooperation and to promote mutual understanding by fostering relationships between American and European youth from different ethnic, religious, and national groups. During a three- to four-week stay in the United States, students will participate in a variety of activities ranging from training sessions to workshops to educational and cultural events.

The event takes place in the summer of 2014 (usually the month of July). More information about the specific dates will become available in the coming weeks.

The participants must be between 16 and 18 years old at the time of the institute and have Luxembourgish nationality.
