Ambassador Wohlers visits Vrapcishte, Debarca, and Struga

On February 13, 2014, Ambassador Wohlers visited the municipalities of Vrapcishte, Debarca, and Struga and met with their respective mayors to discuss challenges facing local government in Macedonia as well as opportunities for improving their municipalities. The Ambassador reiterated the important role of mayors as the “base of democracy” in any country and encouraged them to work for the good of all their constituents, regardless of ethnic, religious, or political affiliations. The Ambassador also visited the American Corner in Struga to speak with students, teachers, and other interested citizens at a “Coffee with a Diplomat” session.
