Call for participants for “Training for Video Activism”

Calling all activists and NGO leaders! Have you ever watched a great viral video and wondered how you could make a similar one about your cause or organization?

The U.S. Embassy and Youth Educational Forum are organizing a five-day, video-making workshop for incredible, diverse and talented people whose goal is to make their communities a better place.

“Training for Video Activism” held by Ms. Annie Escobar, is a video production workshop that trains participants on everything from how to craft a story, to shooting, to editing content and making a final product.

This five-day training will be organized in Skopje during the period June 2nd –June 6th 2014.
