Ambassador Recognized by FON University

Yesterday, at a ceremony at the Macedonian Opera and Ballet to celebrate the 10th anniversary of FON University, Ambassador Wohlers was presented with a plaque in recognition of outstanding leadership in education and international cooperation. Hundreds of invited guests attended the jubilee event at the Macedonian Opera and Ballet, including students, members of the diplomatic corps, business leaders, government officials, representatives from other educational institutions, and Youth Council members. The Ambassador's remarks urged young people in particular to take responsibility for their actions and become the agents of change in their own communities.
