Ambassador Guest at Diplomatic Academy

On December 19, Ambassador Wohlers joined Minister Poposki at the Foreign Ministry's Diplomatic Academy to speak to the incoming diplomats about leadership. The Ambassador highlighted several important traits of leadership, drawing on examples from his personal experience in the military and diplomacy. The Minister discussed the U.S. – Macedonia bilateral relationship, emphasizing that the two countries share the same values, and commended the continuous U.S. support to Macedonia's Euro-Atlantic integration. After their presentations, they held a lively discussion with the Diplomatic Academy audiences on a wide range of foreign policy issues.
