

Embassy shows movie on LGBT human rights movement

Yesterday the Embassy hosted a reception for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered (LGBT) related community, featuring the documentary Stonewall Uprising.

The video chronicled the beginnings of the U.S. gay rights movement in 1969, sparked by a police raid on Stonewall Inn, a gay bar in Greenwich Village, NY.

Major NGOs, international donors, and government officials attended the event, and some were moved to tears by the movie as LGBTs face similar difficulties in Macedonia today.
