SKOPJE • MACEDONIA

Open Media Event with Ambassador Wohlers

Ambassador Wohlers held an open media event on November 15 to discuss the 2012 U.S. Presidential Election and other topics of bilateral interest. In his opening remarks, the Ambassador spoke about the importance of elections in a mature democracy, as well as the example that is set by both the winning and losing parties after an election. He emphasized the long history of friendship and partnership between the United States and Macedonia and assured that this relationship will continue with the new administration as Macedonia moves forward towards its stated goal of Euro-Atlantic integration.
