

Ambassador Wohlers Opens OPDAT Conference

On October 3, Ambassador Paul Wohlers and the Director of the Academy for Judges and Prosecutors, Aneta Arnaudovska, officially opened the joint conference of OPDAT and the Academy addressing judicial jurisprudence of the European Court on Human Rights. A book of 27 judgments on Article 3 (torture), Article 5 (freedom and security), Article 6 (Fair trial), and Article 8 (privacy and family rights) was presented at the conference. In a statement for the media following the presentation, Ambassador Wohlers highlighted the importance of an effective application of human rights standards for a sustainable justice system, where the rights of all people will be respected, bringing Macedonia closer to being a truly prosperous, multi-ethnic democracy based on rule of law.
