

NEW YORK FILM ACADEMY

Talent Based Discount Guidelines

In order to apply for our portfolio review/ TBD for our Associate of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, One Year Master of Arts or Master of Fine Arts Programs at the New York Film Academy Los Angeles campus, applicants must submit a program application to be eligible for the portfolio review. An Applicant's portfolio will not be evaluated without an application.

Applications must be submitted online or they can be filled out at the time of the review. In order to apply, there is a $100 (USD) application fee required. All applications can be submitted www.nyfa.edu/applications.

The Talent Based Discount is only eligible for those applicants interested in attending a New York Film Academy degree program in our Los Angeles Campus.

What we are looking for in a portfolio: Creative samples are accepted in various stages of development, or as completed work. Examples of work can range from drawings, conceptual illustrations, short films, poetry, short stories, storyboards, designs, photographs, three dimensional models, or digitally generated images. Students may choose to submit a typed screenplay or short story (10 page maximum).

If an "in-person" portfolio review is not possible, applicants may submit a portfolio on DVD or via private YouTube/VIMEO links. Please make sure your name, the program name and start date for which you are applying is written on the DVD.

We encourage you to show us your creative abilities! The portfolio evaluation team is here to help understand who you are as a potential New York Film Academy student.
