LIST OF LAWYERS

The U.S. Embassy in Manila, Philippines assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Embassy/Consulate. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list regarding professional credentials, areas of expertise, and language ability are provided directly by the lawyers. You may receive additional information about the individuals by contacting the local bar association (or its equivalent) or the local licensing authorities.

SERVICE OF PROCESS

American consular officers are prohibited by regulations from serving legal process emanating from any court, whether in the United States or abroad, and are prohibited from appointing others to do so, except in certain cases in the United States Federal courts involving service of process on United States citizens abroad (28USC 1783 and 1784).

Service of process in the Philippines may be accomplished by various methods depending on the circumstances of the case. For example, service of process may occur by registered mail to a last known address, by publications, and by personal service, which may be made by other officers of the court, including attorneys. Most American law firms have found it helpful, and in many cases necessary, to engage the service of Philippine attorneys to advise and assist them in effecting service of process in the Philippines.

ADDITIONAL LEGAL RESOURCES

SUPREME COURT OF THE PHILIPPINES

The Supreme Court (SC) regulates admission to the Philippine Bar and administers the Philippine Bar examinations. In addition, the minimum curricular requirements for membership in the Philippine Bar are set forth in the Rules of Court promulgated by the SC. The SC assigns a roll number to each lawyer who has passed the Philippine Bar. The SC requires all lawyers to indicate their Roll of Attorneys Number in all papers and pleadings filed in judicial and quasi-judicial bodies, in addition to their current Professional Tax Receipt (PTR) and Integrated Bar of the Philippines (IBP) Official Receipt or Life Member Number.

The SC compiles a list of Philippine lawyers who have signed the roll of Philippine bar passers and are licensed to practice law in the Philippines. This list may be downloaded from the following link http://sc.judiciary.gov.ph/baradmission/lawlist/index.php.

Inquiries should be directed to:

INTEGRATED BAR OF THE PHILIPPINES

The Integrated Bar of the Philippines (IBP) is the national organization of lawyers in the Philippines. It is the mandatory bar association for Filipino lawyers. Membership in the IBP is compulsory for all lawyers in the country. As stated above, the Philippine Supreme Court requires all lawyers to indicate in all papers and pleadings filed in judicial and quasi-judicial bodies their IBP Official Receipt or Life Member Number in addition to their Roll of Attorneys Number and their current Professional Tax Receipt (PTR). The list of lawyers may be viewed at http://www.ibp.ph/ibp%20website/html/ibp_lawlist.html.

PHILIPPINE BAR ASSOCIATION

The Philippine Bar Association (PBA) is the oldest voluntary national organization of lawyers throughout the Philippines. It traces its roots to the Colegio de Abogados de Filipinas organized on April 8, 1891, and the bar association organized by American lawyers in the Philippines in 1900, which was patterned after the American Bar Association.

Requests for list of PBA members may be directed to:
