United States of America
Department of Commerce
Manila

The U.S. Commercial Service (USCS), a part of the U.S. Department of Commerce, is the primary export agency of the U.S. Government. The U.S. Commercial Service helps U.S. companies enter the Philippine marketplace by finding trade partners, providing background checks, staging USA pavilions at selected trade events, and by providing valuable market intelligence.

USCS also works closely with Philippine companies interested in doing business with U.S. firms by helping them find U.S. products and services, and to explore new business opportunities through official trade delegations, agency or distributorship agreements, joint venture and strategic alliance partnerships, franchising, or direct purchases.

Find Business Opportunities with our Worldwide Network

International Buyer Program

Participate in one of the 30 buyer delegations we send to U.S. trade shows each year. Our support includes on-site business counseling, travel logistics and scheduled introductions.

Business Service Providers

Advertise your business or service to thousands of American companies that inquire at our office each year! Also take part in select Embassy commercial functions through our BSP program.

Commercial News USA (CNUSA)

Receive a free subscription to the official trade journal of the U.S. Commercial Service. CNUSA introduces you to thousands of new products and services offered by U.S. companies every year. CNUSA is available online or mailed directly to you.

Business Matchmaking/Finding a U.S. Supplier

For companies seeking a specific product or service, we can organize meetings with U.S. companies interested in the Philippines to find the right supplier for your business. U.S. companies visit the Philippines on their own schedule or as part of a trade mission, and we can include you on their schedules and our networking events. Also, be sure to register in our USCS Philippines database so we can bring you the American manufacturers and service providers appropriate to your business interests.

Financing Solutions

Take advantage of the U.S. Export-Import Bank's financing programs to purchase U.S. goods or services for business start-up or expansion.
