

Call for Applications for the 2014-2015 Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program

The United States Embassy in Mauritius is pleased to announce the annual competition for the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program. This one-year Fellowship program is offered to mid-career professionals who have a proven track record of leadership, a public service commitment, and the capacity to take full advantage of a self-defined program of independent non-degree study at a leading U.S. university. The program awards a certificate from the U.S. Government; it is not designed to deliver an advanced degree.

The Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program brings accomplished professionals from designated countries around the world to the United States at a midpoint in their careers for a year of graduate level academic course work and professional development activities. Fellowships are granted competitively to professional candidates with a commitment to public service in either the public or private sector.

Eligible Fields/Sectors:

Below is a list of eligible fields:

Sustainable Development

- Agricultural and rural development
- Economic development
- Finance and banking
- Natural resources, environmental policy, and climate change
- Urban and regional planning

Democratic Institution Building

- Communications/journalism
- Law and human rights
- Public policy analysis and public administration
- Trafficking in persons policy and prevention
- Technology policy and management
- Human resource management

Education

- Educational administration, planning and policy
- Higher education administration

- Teaching of English as a foreign language

Public Health

- Public health policy and management
- HIV/AIDS policy and prevention
- Substance abuse education, treatment and prevention

Application Process:

Interested applicants must apply online at:

http://apply.embark.com/student/humphrey/fellowship/.

Deadline for submission of applications will be Monday, July 15, 2013.

After national selection, final nominations are reviewed in the United States by independent review committees. These review committees make recommendations to the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Awards will be announced by the end of February 2014 for Fellowships during the 2014-2015 academic year. Awards for Fellows going to the Long-Term English program will be announced in January 2014.

To be eligible for a Humphrey Fellowship, applicants must have:

- A first university degree
- Five years of full-time professional experience
- Demonstrated leadership qualities and a record of public service
- Demonstrated English language ability
- Limited prior experience in the U.S.

Terms and Conditions:

The Humphrey Fellowship provides: international travel, tuition and university fees, accident/sickness coverage, monthly maintenance allowance and funding for books and professional activities. The Humphrey Program does not provide financial support for accompanying dependents.

A complete application includes:

- (1) Duly filled Application Form (please specify 2014-2015 cycle when you apply)
- (2) Official transcripts with the degree certificates;
- (3) English translations of official documents where applicable
- (4) Appropriate recommendation letters
- (5) Study Objectives and Personal Statements

Documents that could not be attached to the application online can be sent by the deadline to:

*Re: Fulbright Junior Staff Development Program
The Public Affairs Section
Embassy of the United States of America
Rogers House, 4th Floor, John Kennedy Street
Port Louis*

Only shortlisted candidates will be called for interview at which time, the originals of all documents must be produced. Incomplete applications will not be considered. The Humphrey Program was initiated in 1978 to honor the memory and accomplishments of the late Senator and Vice President, Hubert H. Humphrey. Fellows are selected on their potential for leadership and commitment to public service.

#####

