Subject: Warden Message – Mexico Travel Warning dated April 22, 2011

Thank you for your participation in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). You are receiving this e-mail because you requested information from the Consulate in Merida, which covers the Mexican states of Yucatan, Campeche, and Quintana Roo.

On April 22, 2011, the State Department released an updated Travel Warning for Mexico, which you can read at http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/tw/tw_5440.html.

If you are traveling elsewhere in Mexico, or traveling back to the United States overland, you may want to receive information from the Embassy in Mexico City or another Consulate as well. Below is a map that shows you regional coverage of Mexico by consulate.

In order to get the most updated information for your trip, you can sign up to receive warden messages like this from any other Embassy or Consulate in the world (as well as from us) through your STEP account. Just go to <https://travelregistration.state.gov/ibrs/ui/> and click on “Add a Trip.” You can read the most current messages from the Embassy or other Consulates by visiting their websites.

For information on how to contact the Merida Consulate including the Consular Agencies in Cancun, Playa del Carmen and Cozumel, please visit Merida’s website at <http://merida.usconsulate.gov/service.html>.

Thank you and regards,
