

Calling all English Language Teachers for the....

English Language Teaching (ELT) Workshop Series

A Professional Development opportunity to develop your ELT and to meet and discuss ELT with fellow teachers. Five ELT workshops will be offered, one each month for five months, by the English Language Fellow in Mozambique Kasey Larson, starting February. The topics for the workshops include:

- Using Groups in Large Classes
- Feedback
- Classroom Management
- Classroom Materials Design
- Lesson Planning

Who: Open to all English Language Teachers

Where: The American Culture Center

When: One Saturday of each month from February to June. From 10:00 am to 2:00+ pm. See below for specific dates and registration information.

*** Participants who complete the workshop will receive a certificate of participation.

Registration

To register email Kasey Larson at klarson@hawaii.edu In your email include your name, contact information (phone & email), a short paragraph about yourself and your teaching, and a short paragraph about why you want to attend the workshop. If you cannot email, you may bring this information to the ACC and drop it off at the Information Resource Center located upstairs during the registration period for each workshop.

Space is limited. Preference will be given to in-service teachers. Selection of participants will be determined by what is written in the introductions and the time participants register. You must register for each workshop individually. See below for the registration time table.
