Raaga Numérique

Basic Film making for Social Good

The U.S. Consulate, Mumbai invites you to participate in a free two day workshop on "Basic Film Making for Social Good" in your city.

City: Vadodara
Dates: September 19 and 20, 2016
Venue: Raaga Numerique Studio, 203, Mangaldhara, Standard Chartered Bank Lane, 83, Sampatrao Colony, Alkapuri, Vadodara 390007. Gujarat
Time: 11:00 am to 6:00 pm

If you are passionate about gender issues and enjoy making films for a cause, here is your chance to learn the basics of film making with Film Director Ajita Suchitra Veera.

The workshops are part of the U.S. Consulate, Mumbai's Film Festival on Women's Safety and Empowerment. Workshop participants are expected to submit entries for the Festival. The contest will open in October and the Festival will be held in Mumbai on December 9, 2016. More details will be given during the workshop.

Please bring your own video camera or smart phone for hands-on application during the workshop.

To register, please send in your name, age, profession, telephone number, email address, complete postal address, and a short, one paragraph statement stating why you would like to participate in the workshop to CGMumbaiFilmFest@gmail.com, by September 14.

About the trainer:

Film Director Ajita Suchitra Veera is the Founder of Imaginem Cinema Pvt. Ltd. Ajita wrote, directed, and produced the feature film "Ballad of Rustom," which was shortlisted for the OSCARS in 2014 for the 'Best Picture' Contention. Her short film "Notes on Her" was an official entry to the Oscars in 2003. Ajita is a graduate of the Film and Television Institute of India, Pune where she studied Film Direction.