PERSONAL INFORMATION (Take as much room as you need to write your answers. If necessary, attach another sheet of paper.)

Please tell us about yourself (personal history, interests, reasons for being interested in the program, interesting facts we need to know about you).

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM-RELATED QUESTIONS

1. What do you expect to learn and accomplish during the exchange program? How would your participation in the program enhance your professional career and personal development?
2. You'll be expected to host a visiting American peer and arrange a professional program in your community. Please explain what kind of local activities should be included in such a program in order for the American visitor to better understand your country's political system and its culture.
3. In order to contribute to sustainable professional growth and have a multiplying effect in your country and the U.S., the exchange program should identify projects and initiatives that young emerging leaders from both our countries could develop during and after the program, dealing with various aspects of politics and legislative affairs. What kind of follow-on activities and projects would you like to see implemented with support from your American counterpart?

PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION QUESTIONNAIRE

Are you willing to share hotel rooms and be in home-stays during your U.S. trip?

Could you arrange, under World Learning's supervision, a professional/cultural program for an American counterpart, during his/her stay in your country?

Are you willing to participate in all stages of the program, including working on follow-on projects with your American counterparts?

Are you available to participate, either in person or via skype or yahoo messenger, in a selection interview in the second part of June 2013?

I agree that all of the information in this application is true and I agree that if chosen, I will participate in ALL program activities in the United States and in my country, including the pre-departure orientation and follow-on activities.
