

The American Netherlands Club of Rotterdam (ANCOR, est. 1955) is celebrating Dutch American Friendship Day!

All nationalities welcome!

- ANCOR wants to celebrate 232 years of unbroken and peaceful relations between the US and the Netherlands.
- This date marks the day that John Adams (2nd US president) bought a house in the Hague that later would become the first US embassy in the world.
- There will Dutch and American music played and of course a quiz over Dutch American history!! Come mingle, network and have a great time!

Date: Saturday, April 12, 2014

Arrival and payment: 1545

Event start time: 1600-1800

Price: Bring Exact Cash!

ANCOR members: free admission includes appetizers, excluding drinks

Guests/Partners: 10 euros pp includes appetizers and 1 drink

Quiz: Dutch American History, prize for the winner! Start studying!!

Lucky Draw Prizes: Dinner for 2 at Millers, Red, White and Blue Floral Bouquet, and more!

Location: Miller's Restaurant

Voorhaven 3

3025 Rotterdam (Historic Delftshaven)

Miller's will offer a special Dutch American Friendship 2 course menu for those interested from 1830. Price €17.50, a taste of Holland and America with Dutch apple pie for dessert! Excludes drinks

RSVP Required for the event and/or dinner: Cory Samson-samson5052@gmail.com

Unfortunately, this location is not wheelchair accessible. In good weather, event will take place outside on the dock!

Tour Option: 1500-1545 American History Walking tour from Rotterdam
Discovery Tours- €7 pp