

STUDY IN THE USA

Nancy Hargrave Meislahn

Dean of Admission and Financial Aid,
Wesleyan University
Middletown Connecticut

Queen Margaret College Auditorium
53 Hobson St., Thorndon, Wellington
Thursday 26 May, 6-7pm

Nancy Hargrave Meislahn will be giving a talk about applying to universities in the United States for interested high school students, administrators, principals, career advisors, and parents. Nancy will give an overview of the US tertiary academic system and the process of admissions for non-US students to US institutions, applying for financial aid and understanding study in the liberal arts and sciences. She will also be taking questions from attendees and will have additional information available.

If you are interested in attending this presentation please send the following information to: wellington.arc@state.gov by 25 May 2011

- Name
- School or organization
- Title or year of study
- Contact phone # or email address

If you live outside of Wellington or are unable to make the presentation, then you can watch LIVE online. Details at: <http://www.facebook.com/event.php?eid=150692174999203>

For more info about studying in the US see the information available at:
http://newzealand.usembassy.gov/education\_advising.html

EMBASSY OF
THE UNITED STATES
OF AMERICA

