

The U.S. Embassy in Managua
presents
A Free Webinar Series for English Language Teachers

The Office of Public Diplomacy of the U.S. Embassy in Managua is pleased to offer its eighth webinar course titled “Shaping the Way We Teach English.” The online seminars of the course cover a variety of topics and are intended for teachers of English or future teachers of English around the world.

The series will run from October 3 to November 28, 2012. Each 90-minute webinar will take place every other Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. The focus of many of the webinars in this series is related to teaching with different forms of art (ex: MET Museum resources, reader’s theatre, and vocabulary building with pictures and photographs).

The Viewing Party (VP) Coordinator is the contact person with the U.S. Embassy in Managua and the Webinar Coordinator in Washington DC. Once accepted to be a VP Coordinator, the English Language Coordinator at the U.S. Embassy in Managua will give you the instructions on how to register for this program. Please provide the information requested below.

Your computer must have Adobe Flash Player to participate. This usually comes pre-installed on most computers worldwide. If prompted to do so, you may download the free player at <http://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>.

Note: Upon completion of all five sessions, participants will receive an E-Certificate.
