

Who we are: The Information Resource Center is a reference/research library that provides comprehensive and authoritative information on the United States.

What we do: Engage, Educate, Empower.

Information Just in Time: We help you find facts and answers, keep you up to date, and empower you to help yourself. You will find news from Washington DC and information about U.S. foreign policy, law, democracy and government, trade and economics, American literature and political thinking, HIV/AIDS, U.S. and international statistics.

We have information for: journalists, academics, businessmen and women, civic organizations, teachers, students, government officials, military, clergy and traditional rulers.
