During her visit to attend the handover ceremony of the patrol boat (KABEKL M'TAL) from the Nippon Foundation to the Republic of Palau, Sector Commander USCG (United States Coast Guard) Captain Casey White from Sector Guam, in concert with the Ministry of Education, delivered to junior and senior high school students and other interested individuals information regarding USCG educational and induction opportunities. Her presentation shared the application processes for the USCG Academy and highlighted the many benefits of such an educational opportunity including the eligibility for full college scholarship. A USCG graduate, Capt. White shared her career experiences as part of the presentation and encouraged those interested in a USGC career to contact the US Embassy Koror for additional information.

Maximizing on her visit, Captain White also met with National Emergency Management Office Coordinator Alonz Kyota to film a message for later public distribution on boating safety practices. Additional message by top NEMO officials is being planned and once editing is completed, distribution will take place.
