A team of 30 students and teachers from the Marine War College in Quantico, Virginia conducted a battlefield study for Professional Military Education in Peleliu from March 23-25. The team spent two days exploring battlefield sites in Peleliu, and stayed there one night. The team thoroughly enjoyed their visit, and expressed their gratitude to the people of Peleliu and Palau. President Toribiong and Ambassador Reed-Rowe warmly welcomed the team at the airport, and wished them well.
