

Study of the United States Institutes (SUSI) for Student Leaders on U.S. History and Government 2016

The Institute takes place at the University of Arizona and is focused on contemporary American life, as it is shaped by historical and/or current political, social, and economic issues and debates. Students are provided with an overview of the foundations of democracy as they learn about the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights, the federal system of government, elections, the court system, among other topics.

The program will take place from January 9th until February 13th 2016.

If you are interested you can apply through this link:

<http://goo.gl/forms/SJV1u6NDpX>

DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 30TH, 2015.

CANDIDATE DESCRIPTION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

- First through third year undergraduate students from universities and other institutions of higher education, who demonstrate leadership through academic work, community involvement, and extracurricular activities;
- be typically between 18-23 years old;
- have had little or no prior study or travel experience in the United States or elsewhere outside Peru;
- demonstrate strong leadership qualities and potential in their university and community activities;
- come from historically underserved communities, Afro-Latino or indigenous groups;
- intermediate/advanced English Level

