STATEMENT

The U.S. Embassy in Lima congratulates the Peruvian people and President-Elect Ollanta Humala for the successful election of June 5, 2011. The United States looks forward to working productively with the new administration. The United States and Peru cooperate closely on a wide variety of mutual interests including reducing poverty and expanding economic opportunity, countering narcotics trafficking and illegal drug production, strengthening democratic institutions and respect for human rights, and protecting the environment. We expect the existing excellent U.S.-Peru bilateral relationship to continue.
