

EUCOM Delegation in Warsaw for BMDA Consultations

Rear Admiral Mark Montgomery, Deputy Director of Plans, Policy, and Strategy, is in Warsaw today leading a delegation from European Command (EUCOM) to meet with Polish counterparts for inaugural consultations as described in Article IX of the Ballistic Missile Defense Agreement which will soon enter into force. The agreement calls for regular consultations on the ballistic missile defense system as it relates to the defense of the NATO Alliance. Today's meeting is another key step towards achieving full operational capability of Phase III of European Phased Adaptive Approach (EPAA) in the 2018 timeframe. Please read the latest State Department fact sheet for more information on EPAA and NATO Missile Defense.

###

Additional information about Poland and the United States in English and Polish, and photos from the visit can be found at the Embassy's website: <http://poland.usembassy.gov>