

Luc Levy

Graduated with a Doctorate and Postgraduate Diploma from the IEP of Paris (Institute of Political Studies), I joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1991 and was successively Cultural Advisor in Belgrade (1991-1998), Director of the French Institute in Moscow (1998-2001), adviser at the Ministry for the Balkans and Russia, Cultural Advisor in Riga (2003-2007). From 2008 to 2011, I was Chargé de Mission at the Policy Planning Staff.

My expertise in Central Europe, the Balkans as well as Russian Federation has led me, among others things, to organize in the framework of the Ministry regular encounters, seminars and publications particularly on issues of remembrance and reconciliation. I have been put at the disposal of Memorial de la Shoah for 3 years.
