The Ecuadorian Tourist Security Service has opened special service centers throughout Quito. These “centers of attention” provide information to tourist as well as a location to file police reports for visitors who have been victims of a crime. Please see below for their locations and contact information.

Tourists may also call 1800-TURISMO (887476) to find out the closest local court or tourist attention center available to file a police report. All of the following tourist centers may have staff with a basic knowledge of English and have the police report forms in various languages.
