

Warden Message – U.S. Embassy, Quito, Ecuador

UPDATE – State of Exception Extended to October 8

October 6, 2010

The U.S. Embassy in Ecuador advises American citizens living or traveling in Ecuador that the State of Exception, put in place as a result of last week's police protests, has been extended through Friday, October 8th. American citizens are advised to be cautious, remain aware of their surroundings, and avoid unnecessary travel, particularly after dark, until the police force is fully back to work and the State of Exception is lifted.

The U.S. Embassy recommends continuing to monitor Ecuadorian news outlets for any updates. The Embassy will continue to provide new information as the situation warrants.

Americans living or traveling in Ecuador are encouraged to register with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate and to obtain updated information on travel and security within Ecuador through the Department of State's travel registration website.

U.S. citizens should consult the Country Specific Information for Ecuador and the latest Travel Alerts and Warnings and Worldwide Caution at the Department's website. Updated information on travel and security in Ecuador may also be obtained from the Department of State by calling 1-888-407-4747 within the United States or by calling 1-202-501-4444 outside the United States.
