

Injyana Orchestra Rwanda

A musical celebration of beautiful Rwanda, recognizing it's advancing progress, courageous spirit and God given blessings.

Injyana - "the music that is happening" "the motion and progress of the music"

Friday, 8 March, 2013 at 7:00pm

Christ Church Rwanda (CCR) in Gacariro

(Located in the 20/20 estates near Kagugu & Woodlands Market)

Come experience the exciting, uplifting, inaugural performance of The Injyana Orchestra Rwanda, demonstrating the bright future of Rwanda as expressed through the arts. The IOR is comprised of international and local Rwandan students primarily from the Advanced Band of Kigali International Community School. It also includes members of KICS' ensemble program and additional adult and student musicians from the surrounding region. This 40-person multi-cultural, multi-generational ensemble produces an exciting blend of rhythm, harmony, culture, and celebration. Under the direction of Lance Gaskill, music director at KICS, the IOR will be performing works by Bach, Dukas, Tchkovsky, and a special tribute preceding Rwanda's 19th Genocide Commemoration Week.

ADDITIONAL PERFORMANCES:

Sunday, 3 March at 10 am: Injyana Orchestra Rwanda will be performing at Christ's Church Rwanda to celebrate CCR's 6th Anniversary.

Sunday, 17 March 4 pm: Young Kigali Musicians presents "The Hills Are Alive with the Sound of Music" on the front portico at Christ's Church Rwanda. Ensembles and solos including the music of Brahms, Mozart & Beethoven.
