

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The United States Embassy in Bosnia and Herzegovina, acting through the Office of Public Affairs, is pleased to announce a Call for Proposals for the following Civic Education programs:

- HOMESTAY SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM

Small grants competition will support projects designed explicitly to promote interaction and the development of tolerance between the ethnically, religiously and geographically diverse communities of Bosnia and Herzegovina through home-stay exchange programs. In addition to the core exchange program activities, the proposals should include a component in which participants will stay in the homes of fellow participants from different ethnic or religious backgrounds, and engage in volunteer projects in both communities. Priority will be given to innovative programs that bring together youth (ages 12-24) from communities across ethnic, geographical, and administrative lines and engage large number of youth in community improvement activity in each host town. Detailed budget should be expressed in USD, with a maximum amount of $20,000.

- SCHOOL/UNIVERSITY BASED YOUTH ENGAGEMENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Small grants competition will support interethnic cooperation and exchange between schools/universities in the field of civic education, specifically schools or universities which study syllabi in different official languages in the country. The small grants will be given to pairs of schools/universities to work together to develop new ideas to bridge ethnic gaps between students who study under different curricula, especially from rural and underserved areas. Priority will be given to programs that bring together youth (12-24) from schools/universities across ethnic, geographical, and administrative lines that clearly address the goal of engaging youth in community service/volunteer work and joining the Challenge: Be the cause, Choose the effect (for more information visit www.facebook.com/groups/Izazov387). Detailed budget should be expressed in USD, with a maximum amount of $15,000.

The deadline for submission of proposals is Friday, June 19, 2015.

All projects should include civic education exchanges that include young people from both entities, all ethnic groups and minorities, whose goal is to help educate young Bosnians about the basic concepts of democratic society and to develop tolerance.

Projects that deal with one or more of the following themes will be given priority consideration:

- Twenty Years of Peace: Innovative projects related to the 20th anniversary of the Dayton Peace Agreement and 20 years of peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, with a focus on community engagement and activism.
- Divided Communities: Projects that support bringing together neighboring or nearby communities that have had little contact since the war.
- Divided Schools/Fractured Education: Projects that address school segregation or other problems that divide students along ethnic lines. These projects should help remove obstacles to integration in education.
- STEAM projects: Projects that focus on the study of science, technology, engineering, arts, and mathematics, with a strong inter-ethnic reconciliation component.

Note: There are two different application forms, one for homestay exchanges and one for youth engagement exchanges.
