

EducationUSA Live Webinars

Your 5 Steps to U.S. Study

Step 4: Apply for your Student Visa

Are you going to study in the in the United States? Worried about the visa? If you are, now is the time to join one of our live webinars. The U.S. Department of State issued 781,719 student and exchange visitor visas in fiscal year 2011. This translates to a worldwide acceptance rate of almost 86%. You will first need to receive an admission letter and a certificate of eligibility for nonimmigrant student status from your U.S. institution before you can begin the visa application process.

Join us online this coming March and April where experts will offer invaluable insight on U.S. student visas. Session topics include applying for a visa, preparing for the visa interview, maintaining your visa status, and visa considerations for students with disabilities. Participation is free – don't miss this unique opportunity!

For more information, please visit:

http://www.educationusa.info/edusa_connects

Upcoming Live Sessions

DAY/DATE/TIME (Saudi Arabia Time)	SESSION TOPIC
Wednesday, March 21– 7:00pm-8:00pm	Maintaining Your U.S. Student Visa Status Catherine Lockwood, Robert Morris University
Thursday, March 29– 5:00pm-6:00pm	Applying for a U.S. Student Visa Nancy McCarthy, U.S. State Department
Friday, March 30– 7:00pm-8:00pm	Preparing for the U.S. Student Visa Interview Michelle Lewis, Carroll College
Friday, April 6– 6:00pm-6:00pm	Applying for a U.S. Visa Nancy McCarthy, U.S. State Department
Wednesday, April 18– 7:00pm-8:00pm	Maintaining Your U.S. Student Visa Status Catherine Lockwood, Robert Morris University
Wednesday, April 25– 4:00pm-5:00pm	Maintaining Your U.S. Student Visa Status Franny Henkel, University of Kentucky
Wednesday, April 25– 7:00pm-8:00pm	Visa Considerations – Students with Disabilities Cerise Roth-Vinson, Mobility International

| [Pick the date]