Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

EMERGENCY MESSAGE TO AMERICAN CITIZENS – SAUDI NATIONAL DAY

September 21, 2011

The Embassy requests that wardens pass the following message to members of the U.S. citizen community:

The U.S. Embassy in Riyadh wishes to remind all U.S. citizens in Saudi Arabia to exercise caution during Saudi National Day, Friday, September 23, 2011. Two years ago in the Eastern Province, revelers vandalized stores on the Khobar Corniche. Last year, large groups of Saudi nationals participated in gatherings around the Kingdom which caused traffic jams, overcrowding in some areas, closing of some malls, and led to acts of vandalism. The mood was generally jubilant and friendly with lots of flag waving and cheering, but any large gathering of people has the potential to become unruly.

Please be aware that even gatherings or demonstrations intended to be peaceful can quickly escalate into violence without cause. As a precaution:

- Avoid crowds or large gatherings;
- Minimize your profile while in public;
- Be prepared to postpone or cancel activities for personal safety concerns;
- Tell workers or neighbors where you're going and when you intend to return;
- Always carry a cell phone, and make sure you have emergency numbers pre-programmed into your phone such as the U.S. Embassy in Riyadh (01-488-3800), U.S. Consulate General in Dhahran (03-330-3200) and U.S. Consulate General in Jeddah (02-667-0080). The emergency number for Saudi Police, Fire, and Rescue is 999.

Please report any concerns and demonstrations you may experience to the U.S. Embassy in Riyadh or the Consulates General in Dhahran and Jeddah.
