

The Fulbrighter's Creed

Foreign Ambassador of your country, culture, institution and religion

Upon your time span in any United States' region

Lift up Fulbright's progress and achievements in continuation

Bring your magic touch to our precious, prestigious and empowering consociation

Restlessly shine and rise like a star in this land of opportunities

Innovate, initiate any idea to help yourself and others emerge

Grasp the essence of this program leading to discoveries

Hone your leadership and tolerance spirit as part of your mission and duty

To the peak of its limits whilst enhancing your English and field proficiencies

Establish a comfort zone for immediate and far-flung community

Reach and open up to your fellow Fulbrighters for we have the same creed: bettering our world.

By Vieux Toure (Senegal)

Senior at Bluefield State College

Majoring in Humanities with English Concentration